

VOICE FOR LIFE & AWARDS TRAINING WORKSHOP

Saturday 28th January 2012, 2.30 - 5.30pm

St George's Christian Centre, Barnett Wood Lane, Ashted

with Leah Perona-Wright, Ian Church, James Casselton and Gold Award chief examiner John Wardle

Our annual RSCM Awards Workshop takes a different form this year in an afternoon of fun and learning using the Voice for Life programme. Ideal for choirtrainers and singers of all ages, participants will receive training in:

- 'Using the voice well' (Vocal technique & prepared singing)
- 'Musical skills and understanding' (Sightreading & aural skills)
- 'Knowledge of repertoire' (Understanding the music we sing)
- 'Choir in context' (The church year, services & why the choir sings)

All these skills are assessed in the RSCM Dean's and Bishop's Awards so the workshop will offer valuable insights to those preparing for exams. There will be tips for singers and choir trainers on how to achieve exam success. Running alongside will be a workshop offering special training for any yellow level/potential Gold Award candidates run by an RSCM Gold Award examiner.

There will be a break during the afternoon with light refreshments available and games organised for the young people (and the young at heart!)

Venue A link to a venue location map is available on: <http://www.rscmguildfordarea.org.uk>. There is a small car park behind the church off Oakfield Road, or parking in Oakfield Road.

Cost £8 adults, £5 juniors/students (pay on the day). Cheques payable to RSCM Guildford Area.
